The request form opens as a popup

Visitors do not lose their place when they ask for service.

The image shows a mobile app interface with a dark theme. At the top, the status bar shows '9:41' and '5G'. The app header includes the 'LOCK PROS' logo and a hamburger menu icon. A 'REQUEST SERVICE' popup is displayed, featuring the title 'Tell us how we can help.' and a subtitle 'Share the best way to reach you, your ZIP code, and a few service details.' The form contains five input fields: 'Full name (optional)' with placeholder 'Your name', 'Phone number or email *' with placeholder 'Enter one contact detail', 'Service ZIP code *' with placeholder '5-digit ZIP code', 'Service type *' with placeholder 'Select a category', and 'Preferred contact method *' with placeholder 'Phone, text, or email'. A yellow 'Submit request' button is at the bottom of the popup.

Required information

1

Phone number or email

Only one contact detail is required.

2

Service ZIP code

Used to confirm mobile service coverage.

3

Service type

Automotive, residential, or commercial.

4

Preferred contact method

Phone call, text message, or email.

SMART VALIDATION

If Email is selected, the one contact box must contain an email address.

How the pages work together

The navigation stays simple while each city and service has a focused local page.

WHY THIS HELPS LOCAL SEO

- City name appears in the page title and main heading.
- Service and city have a readable, specific URL.
- Related services link back to the same city page.
- Mobile-area wording is accurate and avoids false storefront claims.

WHAT TO REMEMBER

- Use Ann Arbor as the primary example because MI Lock Pros is based there.
- Customers should still call to confirm exact ZIP-code coverage.
- Vehicle compatibility and parts availability must be confirmed before service.
- No city page claims a separate office or storefront.
